

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To whom Address all Communications.

Just right here we raise a bit In talking of the hog,
To say that some good stockings filled
And some got filled with grog.
And had there been a Banius prize They surely would have won it, But then how fervently they wish They hadn't gone and done it.

The street cars carried something over a thousand passengers on Monday, and very nearly a thousand yesterday.

The large and handsome doll raffled on Christmas night, at Mrs. Morford's millinery store, was drawn by Mr.
Charles Nixell.

Mr. W. A. P. LUTY is smoking an unusually good cigar, a box of which was sent to him as a Christmas gift by Messrs.
R. M. Bishop & Co., of Cincinnati.

Mr. HENRY GREEN, conductor of the morning train South, entertained all the employees of his train at his home in this city last night. It was a very pleasant occasion.

A bill of fare for Christmas day sent to the BULLETIN from the Crawford House, at Cincinnati, shows that there was good cheer there. The proprietor is one of the best caterers in the country.

When the hogs are gone the next thing on the docket will be to get rid of the loafers at the corners of Second and Market streets. They are a very great annoyance to the merchants who do business there.

Rev. HARRY HENDERSON, the boy preacher, will arrive to-morrow to spend the holidays with his parents in this city, and will preach next Sunday morning in the Southern Methodist Church. All are most cordially invited to attend.

The finest fire-eater tournament that ever took place in Maysville was witnessed last night, in spite of the Mayor's prohibition of this interesting Christmas privilege. It was a free-for-all affair, and bedlam reigned for a time in first-class style.

Any one desiring iron work of any kind now or during the coming season can consult Mr. Charles Schrieber, of the firm of L. Schrieber & Son's Company, by calling Saturday at the residence of Mr. Fred Schatzmann. All information will be cheerfully furnished.

Mr. Joseph Dodson has purchased through Judge G. S. Wall, the property at the corner of Second and Wall streets, belonging to Mrs. Julia Chenoweth, for $3,000 cash. Mr. Dodson intends erecting a three-story brick house 165 by 32 feet in size, which will cost $10,000 and cover the entire lot.

FRANK LEAMING'S Comedy Coterie exhibited at Aberdeen last night to a crowded house. The play of Joshua Whitcomb was well rendered and gave perfect satisfaction. The troupe is a good one and decidedly ahead of its pretensions.
Their entertainments are very neat and pleasing.

Six persons escaped from the station house Tuesday night, by breaking through the door leading into the house.
Among the number was Thomas Wheeler, colored, charged with an assault upon Horace Ford, and for which he had been fined $15. Wheeler had a ball and chain attached to his leg when he escaped.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Confederate Survivors' Association of North Eastern Kentucky, will be held in the quarterly court room in this city on Saturday evening, December 29, at eight o'clock. All members are cordially invited to attend.

J. M. FRAZER, President.

The annual meeting of the building association, for the election of officers, will be held at the council chamber of the 29th inst., at half-past seven o'clock.
A dividend of 53 per cent. will be declared and made payable January 5th, 1884.
The amount of dividend due each share is as follows:

First series, per share $2.00 Second series, per share $2.40 Third series, per share $1.00 Fourth series, per share $1.00

This is a very gratifying showing and shows careful and economical management of the association's affairs.

The procession, yesterday, illustrating Maysville's favorite feature, the hog, was very successful and a capital hit at city hog breeding. The pig was exhibited in all his various employments even to the occasional habit of chasing people up lamp posts. The BULLETIN office was represented, with the press in operation printing anti-hog literature and distributing it among the people, together with many other truthful features of our life among the Maysville hogs. The procession as it passed through the city brought the blush of shame to the faces of many citizens who wish well to Maysville and all of her people and scowls and frowns to those who considered the parade an insult to a protected industry.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Mrs. Mildred E. Robinson, relict of the late Nimrod Robinson, died at her home just below this city on the morning of the 24th inst., about four o'clock.
Mrs. Robinson was a daughter of Ignatius Mitchell, one of the early explorers and settlers of this county. She was born June 29, 1797, on the place where she died, which was selected by her father in 1776. Shortly after her birth she was christened by one of the first Catholic priests visiting this State. She was married three times, first to Mr. Forsythe, second to Mr. Vachael Masterson. By this marriage one daughter, Mrs. Martha Best, survives. In 1835 she was married to Mr. Nimrod Robinson, by whom she had two children, Elias and Rufus Robinson, who survive. She joined the Baptist church over sixty years ago, and was immersed by Elder Jesse Holton, sr. The funeral took place this morning.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Andrew Morgan, of Chicago, is at home to spend the holidays.

Mr. Wm. Dunn, of Richmond, Ky., is spending the holidays in Maysville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pettinger, of Covington, are visiting friends in Maysville.

Misses Mary Dunn and Maggie Reardon, of Paris, are visiting friends in this city.

Mr. Frank Maunen, who has been at school at Cincinnati, is at home on a visit.

Mr. John Hanley, of Cincinnati, is spending a few weeks with his relatives in this city.

Mr. Adolph Schreiber and wife, of Cincinnati, are visiting the family of Mr.
Fred Schatzmann.

Mrs. Camille Anderson and daughter, of Dover, are the guests of the family of Mr. W. H. Ambrose.

Mr. Howell Barkley, who has been attending school at New York, is at home to spend the holidays.

Mr. Mark Donovan, of the Clark County Democrat, is spending the holidays with his parents in this city.

D. R. Henderson, of Covington is at home this week. He will graduate in the Cincinnati College of Pharmacy in March.

Messrs. W. B. Matthews, Jr., and Eugene Collins, who have been attending school at Danville, are at home for Christmas.

Mrs. Thomas Ryan and Miss Maggie Fitzgerald, of Lexington, spent Christmas with the family of Mr. Dennis Fitzgerald, of this city.

Miss Mattie, daughter of Dr. Henderson, is at home from the Millersburg College. The doctor has all of his children at home this Christmas—two sons and one daughter.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

J. K. is here.

The Gardner-Gray nuptials the 27th.

Alma Freddy has gone home to spend the holidays.

Oscar Brooker has returned from his up-river trip.

Handsome Johnny, of Columbus, is spending the holidays with his parents.

James Marvin has received his holiday goods, and will be happy to attend to the wishes of all.

The Stanley troupe did not materialize on Saturday night. The weather was too bad for the mother-in-law to be out.

It may be one of the possibilities of the future that some one can get over the river and back once in twenty-four hours.

As Sunday was a day not adapted for a Sunday-school picnic, pedestrians were at a discount. But still we noticed one of Mays-ville's young shoe merchants braving the elements to get to the home of his lady love.

Christmas Bells, the holiday paper gotten up by Mr. T. F. Ellis, was a model of neatness and beauty, and should have had more patrons from this place than it had. Such enterprise should be appreciated in a substantial way.

The first entertainment given by the Orpheus Choral Society took place on Thursday, December 20, and to say it was a success in the fullest term of the word, is only truth.

The singing was rendered in a style that allowed of no competition, and reflected credit on the vocal abilities of the performers. The organ under the manipulations of Mrs. Dr. Guthrie, was brilliant and skillfully played, while the horse duets by Messrs. True and Ellis, assisted by Mr. Chas.
Clark on the piano, received unbounded applause, and was appreciated by the entire audience. The piano accompaniments as played by Miss Lizzie Wheeler, were rendered artistically. The piano solo by Mr.
Charles Clark was beautifully executed and showed the playing of a master hand, the music being of the highest grade. Take it all in all, it was an entire success on the part of the club, but owing to the inclement weather the audience was not what it should have been. Much credit should be given Messrs. True and Mofford for their energies in behalf of this entertainment. Especially Mr. True, who was present, who has been ultimately in laboring for the advancement of music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high standing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and a gentleman withal, it has always been a pleasure to him to try and advance our musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ultimately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul-
timately in laboring for the advancement of
music since he has been amongst us. To him
can be allotted the present high stand-
ing of musical affairs in this place. While
Mr. True is a musician of high standing, and
a gentleman withal, it has always been a
pleasure to him to try and advance our
musical efforts, and he has been doing so
for years. He is a man who has been ul